Instructions for Contributor

1. The text should be in single-column format and typed in English using double spacing and wide margins on paper of approximately 21cm by 29.6cm. Each manuscript should be organized in the following order: title page, abstract of 100~150 words, JEL classification number(s), text (with notes, references, and captions for figures and tables), acknowledgement, The title page consists of the title of the paper, the full name(s) and the institutional affiliation of the author(s).

2. Please make sure not to embed "graphically designed" figures or tables, but prepare these using the PC software's facility. Don't import tables or figures into the text file but, instead indicate their approximate locations directly in the text. Only monochrome figure can be accepted. Color figures or illustrations must be converted to their monochrome counterparts.

3. Original articles only will be considered. Copyright to the article is transferred to the Institute of Comparative Economic Studies, Hosei University, effective if and when the article is accepted for publication in the Journal of International Economic Studies. The length of an original article should not exceed 8000 words and thirty pages in draft, including an abstract, tables, figures, acknowledgements, notes and references.

4. Notes should be numbered as a following example:

At this date, the level of urbanization² can be estimated at 12.3 per cent.

5. References should be cited in the text by giving the surname of the author(s) with the year of publication as following examples:

This is due to the fact that the process of economic development and modernization began first in the less urbanized countries (Bairoch, 1985, Chap. 16);

Muth (1969) shows that the income elasticity of demand for housing is greater than unity;

Thus, 'the apparent trend to a large non-proletarian "middle-class" has resolved itself into the creation of a large proletariat in a new form' (Braverman, 1974, p. 355).

The full list of references should be given alphabetically by the first author's family name, at the end of the manuscript. They should be written using the following examples.

Esho, H. (1981), Tojo-koku Hi-seido-teki Noson Shin'yo Shijoron (Towards the Analysis on the Non-Institutional Rural Credit Markets in Developing Countries), Keizai Shirin (The Hosei University Economic Review), Vol. XLIII, No. 4, pp.113-65.

Gannicott, K. (1986), Women, Wages, and Discrimination : Some Evidence from Taiwan, Economic Development and Cultural Change, Vol. 34, pp.721-30.

Gerschenkron, A.(1962), Economic Backwardness in Historical Perspective: A Book of Essays, Harvard University Press, Cambridge.

Weiskopf, T.E. (1971), Alternative Patterns of Import Substitution in India, in Chenery, H. B. (ed) Studies in Development Planning, Harvard University Press, Cambridge and London, pp.95-121.

6. Authors will receive the first proofs for correction. Major revisions of the text at that time will not be possible. Fifty copies of each printing will be provided to the author at the expense of the Institute.

7. Manuscripts should be e-mailed both in source files (which means in any of the document file and/or spreadsheet file) and PDF format to jies@ml.hosei.ac.jp, Editorial Board for JIES.
