TOPIC 100-level

This class will examine manga from a variety of disciplinary perspectives, analyzing its visual language, the economics of the industry, and its relation to Japanese art history. We will learn about manga's specifics as a type of media and how manga mediates different shifts in society through the exploration of various topics, from gender to digitalization. Beyond the local, we will also ask what manga made outside of Japan can tell us about the global spread of media in our world.

Tourism Development in Japan 200-level TOPIC

After a consideration of historical tourism development, this course will examine a range of topical issues, such as the impact of the 2021 Olympics and the UNESCO World Heritage Site designation of Mt. Fuji. We will analyze the marketing approaches of different prefectures, and consider how sustainably tourism is managed. We will consider the factors behind the remarkable recovery of inbound tourism after the 2011 Great East Japan Earthquake and how Japanese tourism may develop in 2024 and beyond.
