Searching for Materials

Searching for Materials held in Hosei University Library (OPAC)

You can search for details of materials held in campus libraries using Hosei University Library Catalog (OPAC). OPAC can be accessed using dedicated OPAC terminals located in the library or via the Library website.

- 1 You can search by Title, Author, Free word, etc. using the Local Database.
- 2 Check the "Location" by the details.
- 3 Take notes of "Location" and "Call No."
- 4 Search a bookshelf.

Searching articles (E-Database)

Users can access a variety of e-databases (e.g. academic articles, newspapers, dictionaries and reference works, as well as other online tools).

Please log in from the library website. An ID and Password are required for use.

If the material is not available in Hosei University……

If we don't have the materials that you want, you can use the ILL (Inter Library Loan) service at the Reference Desk.

Type of service: Request a copy; loan book(s); visit other library (with a letter of introduction).
If you have any questions, please feel free to ask at the Reference Desk.

Yamanote Line Private University Library Consortium

Users can access the following eight university libraries without a letter of introduction.

Available for:

Graduate and undergraduate (including correspondence course students and auditing non-degree students), full-time faculty and staff, and part-time lecturers

Partner Universities:

Aoyama Gakuin University, Gakushuin University, Kokugakuin University, Senshu University, Toyo University, Meiji University, Meiji Gakuin University, Rikkyo University

Required for use: Valid Student ID, faculty/staff ID

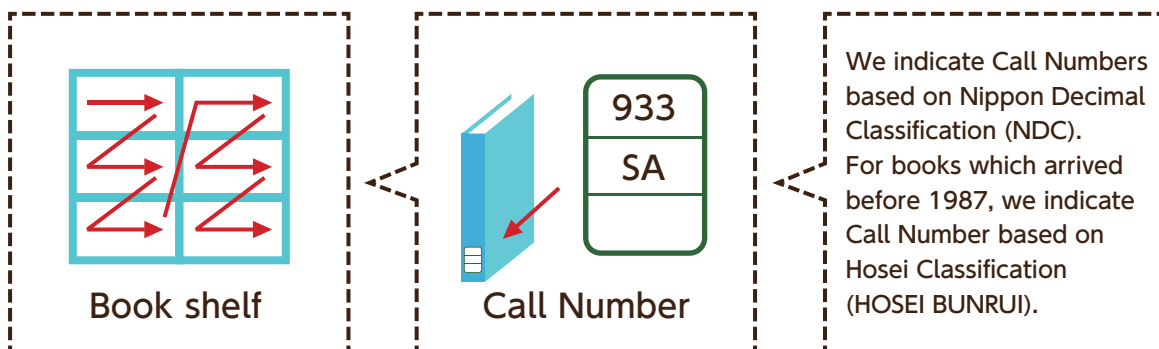

Prior to use, please check the Library Hours and the Terms of Use listed on the website of each participating university.

Arrangement of Materials

Library Materials are arranged by Call Numbers on book shelves.

As for books, we indicate the Call Number on the spine.

The Call Numbers are arranged in numerical and alphabetical orders.

Please feel free to ask any questions at the Reference Desk!

Library staff are happy to provide information on searching for materials on a topic or using electronic resources. We can also explain how to use the Library and give advice on research.
