Fall 2020

Final Examinations

1. 'Final Examinations' will be carried out as follows.

In this semester, courses offered by the Faculty of Economics of Tama campus will not have regular face-to-face examinations.

There are subjects that conduct Essay(Report) tests and Online Tests during the class period (to January 20th (Wed)) or exam period (from January 21st (Thursday) to February 2nd (Tuesday)).

You need to check the method of the final examination for each course.

*In other departments and other campus courses, regular examinations in the classroom (face-to-face) are required.

For more information, refer to the 'Announcement Screen' for each course in the Online Bulletin Board and 'Learning Management System'. Please check with each department's website.

2. Final Examinations methods

There are three methods :

- ① Final Essay
- ② Final Online Test
- ③ No examination (Normal assessment)

3. How to check the final grading methods

Follow the steps below to confirm the methods of final grading for each course.

- ① Check the list of methods for the Final Examinations to be posted on the Online Bulletin Board in mid-December.
- ② Check the 'Announcement Screen' of the each course on 'Learning Management System (Hoppii)' for details.

※For details (Online Test schedule, etc), follow the instruction from the instructor.

※Global Open Courses and other faculty courses may have different methods for final grading.

Be sure to check the instructions from the faculty in charge.
