

The GIS REFERENCE ROOM is a SPACE of SUPPORT for YOU

As a GIS Student at Hosei University, you have many resources and support available to You.

The GIS Reference Room, located on 1F of the Fujimizaka Building, is one space where you can come and receive help, support, guidance, and answers to the questions you may have about your studies, your writing, reading, research, post-graduate study queries ...

We offer English support to all GIS students towards encouraging you to make the most of your time at Hosei University.

Here, you can receive ~

Feedback and Help on your essays + assignments: Our native speaker can read your essays, assignments, give constructive feedback and suggest improvements.

~ Make sure there is enough time for your assignments to be checked and for you to have time to revise, make changes, rewrite before you hand in your work ~

Test preparation: Are you preparing for your mid-term exams? Are you taking an English language test such as TOEFL or IELTS? Come for support and advice on revision methods and strategies.

Presentation preparation: Need feedback or help with your presentation? Talk through your presentation ideas and practice your speech and presentation with us.

Post-graduate university information & application: Interested in knowing more about post-graduate studies overseas? Planning to study abroad? Have your Post-graduate Personal Statements, documents or application proof-read and revised.

Reading support: Have questions about your readings? Want to discuss the research articles, books, and journals you are reading? Come ask your questions and receive answers.

English conversation: Feel like chatting or discussing something specifically in English? Come to the GIS Reference Room and let's talk!
