

FY2018 Field Workshop Proposal

Theme	Food, Life and Peace: International Exchange through Learning Self-sufficient Organic Farming
The person in charge	Satsuki Takahashi and Miya Itabashi
When	Early March, 2019	日程	3 nights and 4 days
Place	Nasu-Shiobara, Tochigi Prefecture
Collaborator	Asian Rural Institute
Capacity of participants	Around 15 people
Objective of Field Workshop	Asian Rural Institute (ARI) has been training rural leaders in developing countries through self-sufficient organic farming. By doing farm work and attending lectures, basically in English, with people from various countries, participants in this workshop will be able to deepen their knowledge on sustainable development, food, life and peace.
Schedule	The itinerary might change according to circumstances. Day 1: Departing from Nasu-Shiobara Station, a campus tour, Foodlife work, and hot spring Day 2: Exercises, animal farming, morning gathering, organic farm work, lectures and cooking Day 3: Same as day 2 Day 4: Exercises, morning gathering, wrap-up, and arriving at Nasu-Shiobara Station
Where stay to	442-1, Tsukinukizawa, Nasu-Shiobara, Tochigi Prefecture, 329-2703	施設名	Asian Rural Institute TEL 0287-36-3111
Cost	Around 30,000 yen (including accommodation and food, but not transport expenses)
Pre-&Post study session	Pre-workshop study : scheduled in February Post-workshop study : scheduled in March
Important notice	(1) Please do not cancel after you are admitted into this workshop in November 2018. You might have to pay participation fee even if you cancel. (2) This is a joint program with Field Study of the Japanese curriculum. Up to 15 students, including both SCOPE students and Japanese curriculum students, are admitted.
Selection	Participants might be selected through interviews if more than 15 students apply for this program.
Grading	Students will be assessed based on their participation in the Field Workshop and pre- and post-Workshop study and on their essays.		